

Extemporaneous Speaking Topics - State 2023 Finals

|                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                    |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| What can be done to help agricultural families better plan for succession and transitioning operations to the next generation?                                 | How has farming efficiency changed in the last 50 years and what will that look like for the next 50 years? |
| With the mental health crisis on the rise in the agriculture industry, what efforts can be expanded to combat the issue and help protect farmers and ranchers? | What opportunities for agritourism exist in Nebraska?                                                       |
| How will the ag community be impacted by the recent election of an agriculturalist to office-- Governor Jim Pillen?                                            | What effects will Mexico's proposed ban on biotech corn have on the U.S. markets if passed?                 |
| How does agriculture affect the sustainability of rural communities?                                                                                           | Why is trade important to agriculture and what trade agreements have been most vital to U.S. agriculture?   |
| What do you think is the most controversial new technology facing agriculture today and in the near future?                                                    | What is the livestock industry's role in the carbon cycle?                                                  |
| How can different types of agriculture successfully market without directly attacking/penalizing other agriculture industries?                                 | How do fiber optics play a role in the success of the agriculture industry?                                 |