

Extemporaneous Speaking Topics - State 2024 Prelims

How can the agriculture community better educate consumers on current agricultural technologies?	How can agriculturalists work to ensure consumers that the food they buy is safe to eat?
What is biosecurity and why is it important in the agriculture industry?	What are biofuels and will they affect the agriculture industry in the future?
Can urban agriculture impact global food security?	Given the shortage of ag teachers, how can we encourage more people to pursue agricultural education as a career?
How is groundwater depletion across America affecting our agriculture, food, and natural resources systems?	Not every high school in Nebraska has an agricultural education program or FFA. Are there other ways to get agricultural knowledge into high school classrooms?
Have misconceptions about the agriculture industry become more or less prevalent in the last decade? Why?	Sustainability is a buzzword in today's society. What is sustainability and do agriculturalists need to improve their sustainability?
What piece of biotechnology will have the greatest impact on our food system in the future?	Do steps need to be taken to increase food security in the United States? Why or why not?